Nine of 54 Indicted Members of Timber Workers' Brotherhood Face Court.

LAKE CHARLES, La., Oct. 1-The trial of A. L. Emerson, President of the Park for the sailor boys who have no votes. eight other members indicted for murder, in connection with the Grabow riot July 7, was continued in District Court

The case is of national interest besause the Brotherhood of Timber Workdon which attained notoriety at San Diego a few months ago, when its nembers were run out of the city, and again at a later date at Lawrence, county of wood, is at present attending the trial of Ettor, Giovanniti and Caruso, charged with killing a woman during the recent textile strike.
The Grabow riot, of which the pretrial is the result, grew out of a longstanding feud between the Brotherhood and some of the local timber operators Four men were killed and forty wound-d during the fighting which occurred

Fifty-eight men were indicted for Gra-baw riot killings, but only nine are on trial now.

STATEN ISLAND NOTES.

Court Tottenville, F. of A., has elected the following officers: Chief Ranger, John J. Bolan; Second Chief Ranger, Charles R. O'Donnell; Recerding Secre-tary, John A. Clark; Senior Woodward, Fifty-eight men were indicted for Grabow riot killings, but only nine are on trial now.

When court opened, Judge E. G. Hunter, attorney for the defense, moved on behalf of the other forty-nine defendants to set aside the order granting a severance of the cases. The motion was argued at length and Judge Overton promptly overruled it.

A motion for a continuance for two weeks was likewise overruled.

Alming to "show the authorities that organized labor is against legalized murder," the defense committee of the Brotherhood of Timber Workers has called upon all its members to come to Lake Charles to attend the trial. The Bethel Fair candy booth members will have a musicale at the home of Miss Laura Yetman, Broadway and William street, Tottonville, Oct. 19.
